Care Coordination Organizations/Health Home (CCO/HH) Provider Policy Manual

This manual provides Medicaid policy and comprehensive guidance to Care Coordination Organization/ Health Home (CCO/HH) providers. This information can be useful to families navigating the same system. Policy statements and requirements governing the CCO/HH

Program are included. The manual is designed to be updated with new information and clarifications when necessary. OPWDD and NYSDOH will make every effort to keep the manual up-to-date so make sure that you have the most recent revision when using it as a reference tool.

What Criteria is Used to Determine if a CCO/HH is Providing “Value”?

This blog post does a nice job explaining performance measures that are used in determining whether a CCO/HH is providing its members appropriate service. It outlines specific goals, breaking them down into measures that can be used to calculate quantitative data which reviewers can use to determine if the CCO/HH is providing “value” to those who it is serving.
